Foreword

It was a great honour for us to invite George Vithoukcas to Switzerland for a two day seminar. The theme of the seminar "Anxiety and Jealousy" met with great approval and inspired participants. The amount of positive feedback and the many inquiries led us to the decision to publish the contents of this seminar as a book.

During these two days, George Vithoukcas shared with us his extensive experience and his profound knowledge of Materia Medica. With great commitment he presented the keynotes of the most significant remedies for these issues in a vivid and practical way. While extracting their most important aspects, his comparative description of Materia Medica enabled each participant to clearly comprehend the reasoning leading to the prescription.

This volume contains lots of information and valuable suggestions for homeopathic practice. The extensive index, the clear layout plus the keynotes of the 25 remedies, discussed during the seminar make this book a very practical reference work.

We sincerely thank George Vithoukcas for permitting us to publish this seminar, and for checking through and amplifying the manuscript. We further thank Uta Schildwaechter and Hans G. Schrauder for editing the material.
