INTRODUCTION

This is the first part of my book "Homoeopathic therapeutic hints for beginners". In this part I have written all about fever, infectious diseases and constitutional diseases under every heading. I have explained the causes of disease, the precautions to be taken and the treatment with remedies, by doing so, the beginners will have a detailed idea and enables them to form a complete picture; It is anyway the idea of my master late Jaipoorya which I have tried with the best of my ability to translate into a practical how far I have succeeded. The reader alone can decide.

I thank my publishers "Indian Books Periodicals Syndicate" for having taken up this work and published it thus furthering the cause of Homoeopathy for the good of mankind;

I am truly grateful for the Homoeopathy for having encouraged me in the past and at present by extending their helping hand to all my works; Thus generating in me a new enthusiasm to prove myself to be of real use for the sake of this divine medical science.

Yours Homoeopathically

KAKINADA
