THE STUDY OF REMEDIES BY COMPARISON

	ACONITE	BELLADONNA	HYOSCYAMUS	STRAMONIUM
I
FEAR APPREHENSION ANXIETY	Fear : of the dark ; to go where others are ; of death ; of the future ; of her recovery ; crossing a busy street ; loss of reason. Fearful predictions. Disposed to be frightened. Ailments from fright, even remote, esp. jaundice Anxiety : inconsolable, may be followed by total apathy; with piteous wailing; with cold sweat. Extreme timidity, esp. after fright ; shows itself in countenance.	Fear : of imaginary things, wishes to run & hide ; of black dogs ; fiery shining object* ; objects in delirium ; approaching death ; with anxiety, continual restlessness & desire to escape. Tormented by terrible anxiety. Timorous insanity. Sometimes desires death rather than fears it.	Fear : of being left alone ; of being poisoned ; to eat or drink what is offered ; of being betrayed or injured ; of syphilis ; with anguish. Horrid anguish; fits of anxiety. Anxious apprehension & chronic fearfulness. Consequences of fright.	Many fears connected with his distorted mental state : that he is alone & is frightened ; he is going to fall ; something will fall on him ; moves suddenly to avoid animals that pursue him ; his features reflect the fright & terror of his visions. After fright; mania, melancholia, epileptic attacks, spasms, chorea.
II
DEPRESSION SADNESS MELANCHOLY	Unhappiness, worry, despair, esp. in delirium. Moaning, anxious lamentations ; cries, tears, complaints, groans, reproaches ; sadness with solicitude & anxiety. Disposition to weep. Music makes her so sad it is unbearable. Alternate gaiety & gloom.	Melancholy : with grief, hypochondriacal humor, moral dejection, discouragement ; with hysteria. Lamentation, groans, cries dejection & weakness of mind & body. Depression or too great hilarity. Weary of life, wishes to drown herself Sudden changes from merry mood to quiet meditation or active delirium ; morose & serious or undue & excessive laughter; excitable mood easily brought to tears.	Melancholy : great variety of melancholic manifestations; after disappointed love or fit of passion ; with rage disposition to laugh at everything ; gradually develops into true madness. Morose dejection ; despair. Whines but does not know why.	Sadness with deadly anguish. Sad ; apprehends evil consequences from trifling things. Inconsolable, affected much by trifles ; crying, weeping, lamenting, downcast, believes herself unworthy, or thoughts of death. Alternates between exalted state & settled melancholy.
III
SUSPICION MISTRUST	Misanthropic; anthropophobia; shuns people; no affection for anybody.	Disposition fearful, mistrustful, suspicious, apprehensive, wants to run away. Dread of society.	Suspicion : that he will be poisoned by his family; groundless, of being watched, gradually passes into insanity. Very suspicious. Anthropophobia.
IV
SELFISHNESS ENVY JEALOUSY			Jealousy : with rage & the attempt to murder ; with erotic mania; causes serious illness, or violent threatening nervous symptoms; unfounded jealousy.	Self-will & obstinacy.
